

Queensland Reconciliation Awards 2026

Guidelines

The Queensland Reconciliation Awards design depicts a celebration of diverse industries, services, leaders, and pathways that build strong and proud communities across Queensland. The five areas celebrated within the Reconciliation Awards are each represented by their own element, however, all elements also work together to create a landscape of strength and cohesion from the ground up.

The Queensland Reconciliation Awards is an initiative of the Queensland Government through the Department of the Premier and Cabinet and the Department of Women, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships and Multiculturalism.

Message from the Premier

Since 2003, the awards have celebrated outstanding collaborations and projects on a shared journey toward reconciliation.

Businesses, community organisations, sporting clubs, educational institutions, and government agencies have been awarded for their inspiring work in improving social relations, enhancing health outcomes, supporting employment, and achieving better outcomes for all Queenslanders.

I encourage you to support, promote, and nominate for the 2026 Queensland Reconciliation Awards to ensure the outstanding reconciliation work and improved outcomes throughout our State continue to be recognised and championed.

DAVID CRISAFULLI MP
PREMIER AND MINISTER FOR VETERANS

Message from the Minister

The Queensland Reconciliation Awards provide an important opportunity to celebrate excellence and to shine a light on the initiatives which continue to strengthen relationships across our State.

Communities working together to support local priorities and create opportunities reflect the resilience of Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples and the commitment of Queenslanders to build a future of shared opportunities. These efforts demonstrate how genuine partnership can uplift communities and lay the foundations for long term wellbeing.

Reflecting on past award recipients, a clear theme emerges – impactful reconciliation built on mutual respect, shared knowledge, and collaboration. These awards put a spotlight on these outstanding initiatives.

I look forward to seeing this year's nominations and encourage everyone to support the individuals, organisations, and communities who are leading the way in deepening mutual understanding and building a shared future together

THE HONOURABLE FIONA SIMPSON MP
MINISTER FOR WOMEN AND WOMEN'S ECONOMIC SECURITY,
MINISTER FOR ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER
PARTNERSHIPS AND MINISTER FOR MULTICULTURALISM

The Awards

The Queensland Reconciliation Awards recognises initiatives and organisations going above and beyond their core business to foster reconciliation and pave the way for a better future for our state. The program provides an opportunity to showcase diverse and innovative reconciliation initiatives providing meaningful impact and social, cultural and economic outcomes across Queensland, while also increasing cross-cultural awareness and respect.

Winners will be announced during National Reconciliation Week, 27 May – 3 June 2026.

How to nominate

You may nominate a reconciliation initiative undertaken in Queensland in only one award category, ensuring it is submitted in the most appropriate category.

Nominations for individuals will not be accepted.

Nominations can be made by the organisation or by someone with the organisation's consent.

Please refer to these guidelines and the conditions of entry for full program criteria.

Note: these guidelines will also be available online throughout the nomination process as hint boxes which will pop up as the nominator progresses through each stage.

Your online nomination must include:

1. Completed online nomination (required)

The nomination must be completed online at qldreconciliation.awardsplatform.com. Nominations provided in hard copy or by way of email, USB or cloud storage will not be accepted.

The nomination must be endorsed by the nominee's Authorised Officer (for example, Chief Executive Officer, General Manager, Director-General, Chairperson, President or equivalent). For nominations in the Partnership category, an Authorised Officer must provide authorisation from each nominated organisation. For nominations in the Health and wellbeing category, an Authorised Officer must sign for each nominated organisation should there be a partnership.

For nominations with more than one organisation (in the Health and wellbeing or Partnership category) the Authorised Officer from each nominated organisation must provide authorisation in the form of the additional agency endorsement form (downloaded from Award Force), or by email directly from the Authorised Officer/s and uploaded as supporting documentation.

The online nomination must include contact details of a person directly connected to the nominee (point of contact) who is authorised to provide further information to the Awards Coordinator or selection panel if required.

2. Written or video response (required)

The online nomination must include written or video responses to the nomination questions outlined in sections 1 to 3. The response should not include confidential information as the responses may be made publicly available should the nomination be shortlisted. Please ensure any presentations, photos or video references are clearly presented and include captions where relevant.

3. Referees (required)

Contact details for two referees are required. Referees must be persons external and independent to the nominee (nominated organisation/s), who has direct knowledge of the initiative and is able to detail the initiative's impact and success.

The nominator cannot be a referee.
The nominee's Authorised Officer cannot be a referee.

Prior to providing the names of the referees, you must obtain their consent to being contacted by the Awards Coordinator or selection panel if necessary. As part of the standard reference check process, these referees may be contacted to verify their reference and provide additional information to confirm the nominee's achievements and contributions, as outlined in the Award guidelines and conditions of entry.

4. Promotional material (required)

The following material must be provided for the State to use at any time (without further recourse to you) in its promotional activities relating to the Awards, including without limitation in its official announcement of Award finalists and recipients, at the Awards announcement and in materials for the Awards announcement:

- the full and correct name of the nominated organisation, or in the case of a nomination in the Partnership category, full and correct name of each organisation comprising the partnership. For example, where the organisation is registered on the Australian Business Register, you must provide the name as it appears on that register. Where the nominee has an Australian Business Number (ABN) or Australian Company Number (ACN), these details must be provided
- the full and accurate name of the initiative
- a summary of the initiative (maximum 100 words). The summary must be in two paragraphs: the first paragraph detailing the initiative and the second paragraph detailing the achievements of the initiative. This summary must be appropriate for publicity and may be used across marketing materials, should the initiative be selected as a finalist
- one high resolution digital photograph depicting the initiative with a minimum file size of five megabytes (5MB) and supplied in JPEG format. You must include a description for the photograph, the location it was taken, and the names of persons identified in the photograph. The photograph must not contain any objectionable or inappropriate content, including dangerous or inappropriate work practices.

You must obtain all necessary consents relating to the materials prior to submitting the nomination.

5. Supporting documentation (optional)

Supporting documentation may include photographs, videos, graphs, electronic media, articles, newsletters, brochures, testimonials and anecdotes. Supporting documentation is optional and primary consideration is given to the response to nomination questions. These materials must be uploaded via the online nomination portal as prompted and will not be accepted by any other means.

1. Please note the following:

- nominations can only be submitted online via qldreconciliation.awardsplatform.com
- nominations provided in hard copy or by way of email, USB or cloud storage will not be accepted
- referees, promotional materials and supporting documentation will only be accepted via the online upload function within your nomination at qldreconciliation.awardsplatform.com and not by any other means
- receipt of nominations will be acknowledged via an automatically generated email from Award Force. Please ensure you provide a correct email address on your nomination form. If you do not receive a confirmation

email within two business days after submitting your nomination, please notify the Awards Coordinator via email at reconciliation.awards@premiers.qld.gov.au or telephone (07) 3003 9200. No responsibility will be taken for the nominee's failure to acknowledge receipt of the confirmation email

- the point of contact listed on the nomination form may be contacted after submitting a nomination and asked to provide further details
- nominations must be received by 5pm, Friday 10 April 2026. Late nominations will not be considered. No responsibility will be taken for nominations that are not received by the closing date.

For more information about the awards or how to complete your nomination, please contact the Awards Coordinator via email at reconciliation.awards@premiers.qld.gov.au or telephone (07) 3003 9200.

Nomination questions – sections 1 to 3

The nomination must address the questions in sections 1 to 3 below for the nomination to be valid and considered by the selection panel. When answering the questions, it is important to provide specific examples of how the nominee's initiative has been outstanding.

For government departments and public service offices submissions, nominations must be able to demonstrate how the work undertaken goes above and beyond their core business.

Initiatives that have been nominated for, or have received a Queensland Reconciliation Award in each of the past two consecutive years are not eligible for nomination in this program unless significant changes have been made to the initiative since the most recent nomination. The nomination must clearly detail any changes or improvements made to the initiative since it was last submitted.

You must also detail if the nominee's initiative has changed name or amalgamated with another organisation since its previous nomination.

Section 1: Initiative overview

(maximum 300 words or maximum two-minute video response)

Provide an overview of the initiative including highlights, facts and evidence. Remember to be clear and concise, as this overview is the first impression for the selection panel.

You should consider the following for each category:

- What is the background of the initiative?
- What is the nominee's role?

- Why was the initiative introduced, and how long has it been in practice?
- What are the outcomes of the initiative?
- How does this initiative go beyond the nominee's core business?
- Who are the nominee's customers, clients and/or key stakeholders?
- How many staff are involved in the initiative? What percentage of the nominee's staff are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander background?
- What are the nominee's main sources of funding (including income, sponsorship, in-kind support and/or grants)? Include exact amounts or percentages.

For the partnership category consider:

- How was the partnership formed?
- Who is the lead partner?
- What is the working relationship between the partners?
- How does each partner contribute to the partnership?
- How did each partner contribute to the initiative?
- What is the core business of each of the partners? What is the partnership's core business? How does the initiative go beyond the core business expectations of the partners and the partnership?
- What is the percentage of funding committed by each partner?

Section 2: Facilitating reconciliation

(maximum 300 words or maximum two-minute video response)

- a. What is the initiative's impact on reconciliation in the nominee's local area, region and/or state of Queensland?
- Detail how the initiative's impact revolves around reconciliation.
  - Provide clear examples of further outcomes or include data demonstrating results achieved by the initiative.
  - Detail the most significant change or achievement as a result of implementing the initiative.
  - Consider using a case study to outline an example of the impact resulting from the initiative.
- b. Describe the key elements of the initiative that currently foster reconciliation through the five dimensions of reconciliation, developed by Reconciliation Australia<sup>1</sup>:
- Race relations: All Australians understand and value Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous cultures, rights and experiences, which results in stronger relationships based on trust and respect and that are free of racism.
  - Equality and equity: Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples participate equally in a range of life opportunities and the unique rights of Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples are recognised and upheld.
  - Historical acceptance: All Australians understand and accept the wrongs of the past and their impact on Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Australia makes amends for past policies and practices ensures these wrongs are never repeated.

- Institutional integrity: The active support of reconciliation by the nation's political, business and community structures.
- Unity: An Australian society that values and recognises Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and heritage as a proud part of a shared national identity.

Additional elements may include:

- improving community relations and engagement
- improving employee relations
- building economic growth
- providing a culturally appropriate workplace
- improving cultural engagement
- improving the health and wellbeing of people and communities
- providing support, guidance and/or career development for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees
- addressing cultural perceptions
- educating the community on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander issues and challenges
- developing partnerships with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and organisations
- other significant areas of the business, organisation or project.

Your response should focus on recent changes, initiatives or achievements (for example, from the last two years).

Section 3: Future plans for reconciliation

(maximum 300 words or maximum two-minute video response)

- a. How does the nominee plan to evaluate the initiative's impact on reconciliation?
- b. How does the nominee plan to improve, sustain or further develop the initiative? Address timeframes and funding sources.

Selection criteria

Nominations will be reviewed by an independent selection panel and will be assessed on the following criteria:

- the initiative's impact on the organisation, people, culture and community
- how the contribution to reconciliation is beyond the core business expectation of the organisation or initiative
- evidence of the initiative's success
- innovation, creativity and resourcefulness used for the concept
- resources and funding available to the organisation's or initiative's geographical boundaries associated with the initiative
- the extent to which the initiative is fulfilling the five dimensions of reconciliation.
