Victoria and New South Wales (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions

Greater Melbourne

- Victoria (Greater Melbourne) and New South Wales (NSW) have imposed stricter measures for Greater Melbourne.
- Greater Melbourne is now under COVID-19 Stage 4 restrictions.
- Greater Sydney (previously Greater Melbourne) is also under COVID-19 Stage 4 restrictions.
- There are mandatory 7-day isolation requirements for Greater Melbourne residents visiting Queensland.

Queensland

1. Queensland Border Declaration Pass (available for Queensland residents) required for all Greater Melbourne residents visiting Queensland from September 9, 2021. A 14-day isolation period is required.
2. Queensland residents are required to self-quarantine for 14 days from September 9, 2021.
3. Queensland residents must undergo COVID-19 testing upon arrival and on day 14.

Sydney, New South Wales

Waverley

Queensland Health

- On Monday 19 July 2021, Queensland border town Waverley recorded its first COVID-19 case in over 14 months, having a resident from Sydney. The border town was placed into lockdown.
- Queensland Health.
  - The Queensland border town Waverley recorded its first COVID-19 case in over 14 months, having a resident from Sydney. The border town was placed into lockdown.

Queensland Government

4. Queensland Border Declaration Pass (Queensland Health) - if you arrived in Queensland from New South Wales, you must complete a Queensland Border Declaration Pass.
5. Queensland Health.

Queensland Health

- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
- New South Wales and Queensland (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions

Karen (ကြီး) – Victoria and New South Wales (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
• Queensland Health announced on 18 May 2021, COVID-19 restrictions have been lifted in the Greater Brisbane area, effective immediately. Queensland Health said the restrictions were lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks. Queensland Health said the restrictions were lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.

- In Greater Brisbane, the restrictions have been lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.
- Restrictions have been lifted in the Greater Brisbane area, effective immediately.
- Queensland Health said the restrictions were lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.

Queensland Health

COVID-19 restrictions (hotspots)

Queensland Government announced on 18 May 2021, COVID-19 restrictions have been lifted in the Greater Brisbane area, effective immediately. Queensland Government said the restrictions were lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.

- In Greater Brisbane, the restrictions have been lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.
- Restrictions have been lifted in the Greater Brisbane area, effective immediately.
- Queensland Government said the restrictions were lifted as the state had not reported any new cases in the past two weeks.

Karen (ကြားခိုး) – Victoria and New South Wales (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
Queensland Health

- Queensland Health provides the following travel advice:

Queensland Government

Karen (ကြောင်) – Victoria and New South Wales (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions
Karen (ကုန်း) – Victoria and New South Wales (NSW) COVID-19 restrictions

Queensland Health

COVID-19 restrictions

With the easing of COVID-19 restrictions in Victoria and New South Wales (NSW), Queensland Health advises on the eased restrictions and provides information on where to find more details.

For assistance in relation to COVID-19 restrictions, call 1300 079 020 or visit queenslandhealth.qld.gov.au. To report a COVID-19 infection in Queensland, call 1300 079 020.