

COMMUNITY CABINET

Cairns | 2 March 2025

Queensland Government

About this toolkit

Community Cabinet is an opportunity for local families, workers, and business owners to meet directly with the Queensland Government.

The next Community Cabinet will be held in Cairns on Sunday 2 March from 3pm.

This stakeholder toolkit has been developed to assist with localised promotion of Community Cabinet and to encourage residents and business owners to register to meet with a minister or attend an afternoon tea reception.

In this toolkit you will find:

1. Social content
2. A3 poster for noticeboards
3. Newsletter / email notice
4. Stakeholder letter

If you have any questions or need anything further, please email CommunityCabinet@premiers.qld.gov.au.

Want the chance to share your issues and ideas with a Queensland Government Minister?

Community Cabinet is your opportunity – and it's coming to Cairns on 2 March.

The Premier and Cabinet Ministers want to keep across pressing community priorities, so they're headed to the region to find out what you have to say.

You can request a 15-minute meeting with a Minister to discuss local and regional opportunities and concerns.

Giving our government a better understanding of your experiences living, working and doing business means better policies, projects and services that meet your needs.
