Training Ombudsman

The Training Ombudsman provides a free, confidential and independent service to review and resolve enquiries and complaints from apprentices, trainees, students, employers and other stakeholders about the vocational education and training (VET) system.

How we help

The Ombudsman can help you navigate the complex VET sector and find the best way to address your concerns as well as provide free and impartial advice about rights and responsibilities within the VET sector.

The Training Ombudsman:

- is the single point of contact to help you with your enquiry
- receives and, where appropriate investigates, complaints about VET matters in Queensland
- advocates or undertakes reviews to resolve apprenticeship or traineeship disputes
- monitors outcomes of complaints to identify systemic issues impacting on the provision of quality VET delivery
- refers matters to the appropriate agencies who can handle your complaint and support you to resolve your complaint.

Who we help

The Training Ombudsman will help people seeking information or advice about any aspect of the VET system in Queensland including:

- students enrolled with registered training organisations
- apprentices and trainees
- employers
- trainers
- other government agencies
- training providers
- industry bodies
- parents and/or guardians.
